

Les Arcs Peisey-Vallandry, FR & Geneva, CH March 7 - 17, 2020 - $3,275 p.p. (dbl occ.)

LES ARCS, FRANCE: Situated in the heart of Savoy in the French Alps, with La Plagne makes up Paradiski representing one of the largest skiable areas in France. Spread over 265 miles (425 km), it links together three resorts—Les Arcs, La Plagne and Peisey Vallandry—using the largest cable car in the world, the Vanoise Express. This "skier's paradise" offers infinite variety, with altitudes ranging from 1,200 m to 3,250 m, from bunny slopes for beginners to challenging black courses for experts, and stunning panoramas of the parade of alpine summits (Mont Blanc, Pierra Menta, etc.) with two glaciers to boot. Throughout the Paradiski domain, close attention is paid to the environment and the buildings, equipment and activities are as eco-friendly as they are fun-friendly. Ski season runs from December to April and travelers can reach the Paradiski domain via TGV or the Lyon and Geneva airports.

An all-inclusive ski vacation at Club Med Peisey-Vallandry is perched 1,600 m (5,250 ft) high in the Tarentaise Valley and a Resort among nature's finest. With typical Savoy architecture and surrounded by pine forests, this family-focused winter sports Resort offers Alpine skiing and snowboarding lessons for all ages. And for those who prefer a more relaxed approach, snow shoe walking is a great way to explore the mountain environment. The NUXE Spa provides beauty treatments for teenagers and adults. The La Vanoise and Pierra Menta restaurants offer a variety of fine dining options. Peisey-Vallandry is the home of the Vanoise Express - 200 person double decker cable car linking the resorts of Les Arcs & la Plagne placing Peisey-Vallandry at the hub of the Paradiski ski area totalling 425km of pistes..
